HOW WE USE COOKIES

The Orchid Healings website uses 'functionality cookies' to allow the website to remember choices you make and provide enhanced, more personal features when using the website. These cookies can also be used to remember changes you have made to web pages that you are able to customise. They may also be used to provide services you have requested. The information these cookies collect may be anonymised and they cannot be used to track your browsing activity on other websites.

By using the Orchid Healings website, you agree that we can place cookies of this kind on the device you use to access the website. You may withdraw this consent by contacting the Orchid Healings website administrator via email at info@OrchidHealings.com
